What is your interest in serving on this board, commission, or committee?

We're very excited to move back home to Missoula, and I'm eager to get involved with the arts community as soon as possible. My husband is the new Arts Education Director for MCPS, and will be moving in early August...I'll be following soon after.

Do you have any special knowledge, interest, or experience that would qualify you for a position on this board, commission, or committee?

I have extensive musical training, as well as non-profit management experience that would be valuable to the board. I also LOVE working with people, and have a passion for supporting art that is local and available throughout the community.
