Background and Alternatives Explored: Tim Hall's term on the Conservation district is ending on December 31, 2021. He expressed his interest in continuing to serve and submitted an application. He is the current chair of the Conservation District. The vacancy was opened on October 20, 2021 and initially closed on November 5, 2021. He was the only applicant at the time, so the vacancy announcement was extended to see if more people would apply. It closed on November 12, 2021 with Tim Hall still being the only applicant. Consider Tim Halls application and re-appointment, discuss waiving interview requirement due to only one applicant.
