What is your interest in serving on this board, commission or committee? MRA successfully uses public leverage with private investment to improve neighborhoods and ultimately to improve the quality of life in the city as a whole. I am specifically interested in helping with Midtown improvements and with housing attainability issues.
Do you have special knowledge, interest or experience that would qualify you for a position on this board, commission or committee? Six years experience on MRA board and continuing community involvement qualify me for this position, which I find interesting, challenging and exciting.
