Background and Alternatives Explored: An alternate member position became vacant when the sitting member was promoted to a regular member. The vacancy was opened on November 12, 2021 and closed on February 11, 2022. Only one application was received from Katie Karas and discussions were held regarding recruiting for more interest. The County shared applications for two people they interviewed but did not appoint, Grant Melton and Rebecca Elderkin. Both people are interested in being interview by City Council. The term will begin immediately and end of December 31. 2024.
