What is your interest in serving on this board, commission, or committee? I'm interested in contributing to my community in a positive way, with a fresh perspective as a long-term Missoula resident who cherishes our open spaces. I'm an avid hiker, a dog owner, a mother, and a hard worker. I'm committed to improving our community through personal involvement and I enjoy working with collaborative and like-minded individuals.

Do you have any special knowledge, interest, or experience that would qualify you for a position on this board, commission, or committee? My interest stems from a desire to give back to my community. I believe I am qualified for this position as I'm active in our community events, I spend my weekends hiking, and I love to share Missoula's resources and open spaces through social media efforts. I am committed and capable individual who would bring enthusiasm, gratitude, and a fresh perspective to the Board. I've served the community in a lot of collaborative ways and I work best in an processive group environment. I hope you consider my experience and passion for this position. Thank you!
