E. Once a permit is issued, the owner shall continue to meet the criteria in (D) above.

B.F. ~~Following the inspection,~~ Based on the information submitted by the applicant and ~~on the recommendation of~~ the investigating Animal Control ~~o~~Officer, the Animal Control Board shall approve or deny the application~~permit~~. ~~The board may issue a conditional permit but must state the permit conditions on the document and ensure that the applicant is advised of the conditions.~~

G. The Animal Control Board may include conditions on the permit to ensure the requirements in (D) will be met.

C. After receiving notification of the board's approval, the applicant must pay Animal Control a multiple dog permit fee of fifty dollars per year, unless that fee is waived by the Animal Control Board based on information submitted by the applicant and the investigating officer. The permit fee may be

~~waived for reasons including, but not limited to, the size of the dogs, their age and/or health status or special care conditions.~~

~~H. After a permit has been issued, an Animal Control Officer may inspect the premises annually or upon complaint to evaluate compliance with the permit conditions. All premises for which a multiple dog permit is issued are subject to annual inspections by the animal control office, board or its designee. The inspections may also be instigated by a complaint filed by an interested person.~~

~~D.I. The board If the Animal Control Board determines that the on-determining that such premises are not being maintained and/or the conditions of the permit are not being met and has given the permit holder a reasonable amount of time to correct the issues, Animal Control, may revoke the multiple dog permit, and shall notify the permit holder in writing. recommend a revocation or denial of the permit if it is deemed necessary. The permittee shall be given a 30-day written notice of board's recommendation/revocation/denial during which s/he may appeal the board's recommendation to the City Council. The City Council shall revoke or reinstate the permit by a majority vote.~~

~~J. If Animal Control revokes a multiple dog permit, the permit holder may submit a written request to Animal Control for a hearing before the Animal Control Board.~~

~~1. The permit holder shall request the hearing within 14 days of receipt of Animal Control's written notification of revocation.~~

~~2. The Board shall schedule a hearing within 90 days of the request.~~

~~3. Animal Control shall give notice of the hearing to the permit holder using the contract information on the request no less than seven days before the hearing is scheduled. Notice is complete on the date of mailing or delivery.~~

~~4. At the hearing, the Board shall first hear the staff report on why the permit was denied. Second, the permit holder may present relevant information to the Board. Third, the Board may hear from any person who has relevant information. the hearing may be conducted informally and need not follow rules of evidence or procedure applicable to judicial hearings. The Board chair may impose rules for the orderly conduct of the hearing.~~

~~5. The Board shall decide whether the multiple dog permit meets the requirements in (D) and approve or revoke the multiple dog permit. A copy of the Board's decision shall be sent to the person who requested the hearing.~~

~~K. If the Board denies or revokes a multiple dog permit, the applicant may appeal the Board's decision to the Missoula City Council. The applicant shall submit the request to the Missoula City Clerk's office, in writing, within 30 days written notice of the Board's decision.~~

~~E.L. A multiple dog permit authorized by the board must contain the following information:~~

~~1. Name and address of the person to whom the permit is granted;~~

~~2. The number of dogs for which the permit is granted;~~

~~3. Any special conditions required by the board.~~

~~3.M. The holder of the multiple dog permit is responsible for contacting Animal Control if the dogs on the property change. Before any additional dogs may be kept on the property, the permit holder must reapply.~~

Severability. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or word of this ordinance is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this ordinance. The council hereby declares that it would have passed this ordinance and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase and words thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, for any reason this ordinance should be declared invalid or unconstitutional, then the remaining ordinance provisions will be in full force and effect.
