Briefly describe your educational background:

I have a Doctorate in flute performance and pedagogy, and have been involved in the arts as long as I can remember.

List of community service experience:

Public performances - Missoula City Band 1988-present, Lake Agassiz Community Band 2012-2020,
Board of Directors - Fargo Moorhead Symphony Orchestra 2016-2020, FM Area Youth Symphony 2013-
2016, Volunteering with various arts orgs including FMSO, The Arts Partnership, etc.

What is your interest in serving on this board, commission, or committee?

We're very excited to move back home to Missoula, and I'm eager to get involved with the arts community as soon as possible. My husband is the new Arts Education Director for MCPS, and will be moving in early August...I'll be following soon after.

Do you have any special knowledge, interest, or experience that would qualify you for a position on this board, commission, or committee?

I have extensive musical training, as well as non-profit management experience that would be valuable to the board. I also LOVE working with people, and have a passion for supporting art that is local and available throughout the community.
